THE TRANSATLANTIC INSTITUTE

Registered charity no. 1108682

Support our work

The Transatlantic Institute is an educational charitable trust registered with the Charity Commission. Our charitable status means that our supporters can help our work in a tax-efficient way. We are grateful to all our supporters for their help.

UK taxpayers

There are two ways in which you can help us if you are a UK taxpayer.

1) We operate a Gift Aid scheme. Please complete the form below and send it to us with your donation. (If you pay higher rate tax, you can obtain additional tax relief by listing your contribution on your tax return.) We are required by tax regulations to ask you for your name/ address details: we will hold these details securely and use them only for the operation of our Gift Aid scheme.

2) If you complete a Self-Assessment tax return, you can nominate a charity to receive, as a donation, the whole or part of any tax repayment due to you. If you wish to nominate the Transatlantic Institute, please fill in our code on your Self-Assessment return. Our code is GAR82VG. Note that this is a separate scheme from Gift Aid and does not replace it.

US: 501(c)3

US taxpayers can now support our work tax-efficiently. Please contact us (email info@t-i.org.uk) for further information about how to do this.

About the Transatlantic Institute

Founded in 2004, the Transatlantic Institute is an independent, non-partisan research and educational organisation based in London. Our mission is to promote informed debate on areas of common concern to America and Europe. We foster discussion and analysis, bringing together a wide range of individuals with an interest in international affairs. For further information on our projects, events and publications, please see our website.

The Transatlantic Institute's key people are William Arthurs (Chairman) and Ziba Norman (Director and founder).
